PEACHES TO GET ALIMONY. Edward W. Browning voiced no objections to paying his child wife alimony pending trial of separation suit, so Peaches won't have to struggle along without luxuries to which he accustomed her. Court will decide on amount Saturday. Photo shows Peaches in latest pose. (Photo Graphic.)

TUNNEL HIKERS BRAVED DEATH. For three hours Mary Kelly, 17, of 4252 Jerome Ave., Ozone Park, L. I., and James A. Berbrick, 23, of St. James, L. I. (above), trudged through the murky gloom of the railroad tunnel under the Hudson River, escaping death by a miracle as trains sped by. They were found by police as they emerged, gasping and choking, in North Bergen, N. J. They were on trip to Far West, they said. (Photo Graphic.)
